SHERATON GRAND JAKARTA GANDARIA CITY HOTEL GOES DARK TO SHINE A LIGHT ON CLIMATE ACTION

HOTEL SUPPORTS WORLDWIDE EARTH HOUR MOVEMENT FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

JAKARTA, March 25th, 2017 – Sheraton Grand Jakarta Gandaria City Hotel goes dark to shine a light on climate action with Earth Hour 2017. The hotel will join millions around the world in turning off lights for one hour on March 25 at 8:30 p.m. local time to illuminate a powerful message about environmental awareness and action. The annual global environmental awareness event was created and instituted by the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) in 2007 to emphasize the threat of climate change.

Sheraton Grand Jakarta Gandaria City Hotel is participating by turn off exterior signage lighting; dim or turn off non-essential interior lighting; use candlelight in appropriate public areas such as restaurants and bars; and use in-room voicemail messages and in-room television messages to inform guests about Earth Hour observances.

Sheraton Grand Jakarta Gandaria City Hotel will also offer candle light dinner at Anigré where our Chef prepares Special organic menu “Eat Smart Save Earth!” Hand-picked and crafted finest organic ingredients by our culinary team. We also offer 50% OFF all glass bottles of water.

By demonstrating these efforts on social media, Sheraton Grand Jakarta Gandaria City Hotel will be participating in Marriott International’s drive to raise funds for WWF, where US $1 will be donated for each Marriott property that tweets their Earth Hour activities.

“It’s a privilege for us to support such a powerful movement with such a simple gesture,” said Denise Naguib, Vice President of Sustainability and Supplier Diversity, “Earth Hour reflects a philosophy we try to practice year-round that we all must do our part and together we can make a big difference. Climate change affects everyone and it also has an impact on the continued success of our business.”
