Goût de France/Good France

21 March 2017

2000 chefs and 2000 menus worldwide

Jakarta, 14 March 2017 - On 21 March, over 2000 restaurants in 150 countries will participate in the Goût de/Good France event to celebrate French gastronomy. This event, orchestrated by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Development and chef Alain Ducasse, is inspired by Auguste Escoffier, who launched the “Dîners d’Épique” (Epicurean Dinners) initiative in 1912: the same menu, on the same day, in several world cities, for as many guests as possible.

Chefs from all over the world will cook a dinner to pay tribute to the excellence of French cuisine and its capacity to innovate and unite people around the common values of sharing and enjoyment in a planet-friendly and healthy way.

The Goût de/Good France menu includes an aperitif with finger food, a starter, one or two main course(s), a cheese platter and a dessert, accompanied by French wines and champagnes. Restaurants the world over, from high gastronomy to high-quality bistros are invited to apply on www.goodfrance.com by proposing a menu that showcases French gastronomy, a cuisine using fresh and seasonal regional produce. An international selection committee of chefs will approve the list of participating chefs as from 28 January 2017.

The Committee will assess the coherence and quality of the menus proposed by the restaurants that have signed up in their respective geographic areas. More than 1300 restaurants participated in the first, 2015 edition around the “Frenchstyle menu”. On 21 March 2016, over 1715 chefs participated in the event which highlighted recipes inspired by French expertise.
